

One phone for every part of your day.

Because there's little difference between work, play and life, the Sonim XP400 is built to make a big difference.

sonim XP400

Tough and rugged, without sacrificing performance.

Every day requires you to seamlessly move between work, play and well, life. So we built a smartphone that can do the same. The Sonim XP400 can handle everything you ask of it, without asking you to compromise in return. Durable construction, consistent performance and feature-packed make it as resilient as you are.

Backed by Sonim

Since 1999, Sonim has been the leading provider of rugged, reliable mobile devices. In those 25 years, we've made it our mission to provide those who work a demanding job or live an active life with tools they can count on to meet their needs. While we're proud of what we've done, we're excited even more for what lies ahead. Learn more at www.sonimtech.com. Learn more at sonimtech.com
